Saturday, November 23, 2–4 pm

Let's create! Join area artist Megan Swoyer of Greenbush Media for a couple hours of fun and relaxation as you create special gift tags for the holidays. You'll snip, paint, punch, dab, and tie your way to some gorgeous tags that will brighten your holiday gifts. Motifs range from peaceful and serene to bright and glittery!

All supplies will be provided for your use. No drawing or art skills required. Materials fee is $10 per person, to be paid to Kathy Engle in cash or check (made out to "Greenbush Media") to reserve your spot. There are a limited number of spots, so reserve yours today!

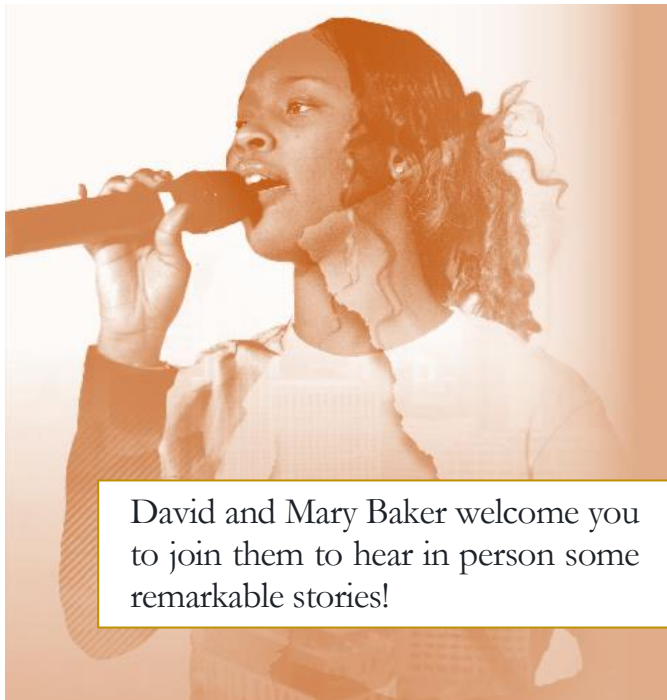

This class is for ages 14 and up. Please be on time; this workshop starts at 2 p.m. sharp. You'll be asked to please silence your cellphones.

Megan is an area art teacher and artist (and Engle's neighbor!), specializing in watercolor-painting. You can see Megan's art at greenbushmedia.com or on Facebook at Megan Swoyer Watercolor Artist. She's also on Instagram as meganswoyer.

The Deacons thank you for your overwhelming generosity for the last-minute food drive for the Community Assistance Program (CAP). When CAP contacted North Hills alerting us of a food shortage in their pantry, the deacons sprang into action! The food items pictured here were delivered to CAP on World-Wide Communion Sunday, October 6, by Deacon Leo Ortel who also presented them with a $1,100 check.

Special thanks to John Grembowski, “The Light Guy,” who installed additional landscape lights for us. The new bank of lights illumines the south side of the education wing, lighting the sidewalk and making visitors arriving from that sidewalk visible to the receptionist on duty. Thanks John!
